OVERVIEW
Close to 500 million people speak Spanish and 20 countries have it as their official language. Spanish is the second-most spoken language in the U.S. (41 million Spanish speakers), giving you a local and a global advantage when it comes to job and business opportunities, travel, and life experiences.

Students will gain an understanding of Hispanic cultures, literature and history that will help give them an edge when looking for job opportunities that are based in or do business with other companies in Spanish-speaking nations.

Careers:
Most students who choose to major in a language offered at Minnesota State University, Mankato are double majors in other fields, including Communications Studies, Business, International Relations, Computer Science, the Humanities and many more. In many cases, they have chosen to do so because their future professional or academic plans include goals that require advanced linguistic and cultural proficiency.

Translation/Interpretation is a growing need along with professional editors who do Spanish-English-Spanish translation and interpretation in every field. Over the next decade, 70% of employers anticipate that the demand for language proficiency in Spanish will be a crucial part of their search for employees. Multilingual employees make between 5-20 percent per hour more than monolinguals.

In other words, you can do just about anything and go just about anywhere with a Spanish degree. You are limited only by your imagination and ambition!

QUALITY OF OUR PROGRAM
Accreditation:
CAEP (Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation).

Faculty:
Our program has four full-time faculty with degrees from major universities in the United States and Europe. The number of graduate assistants teaching classes varies.

Faculty in the Department of World Languages and Cultures are teachers and active scholars in their specialty areas. They serve as mentors of students participating in the Undergraduate Research Conference, one of the largest conferences of its kind in the U.S. Faculty also mentor students participating in PanLingua, a unique regional conference where students can practice their language and cultures skills with peers from neighboring states attending private and public universities. They serve on university committees and are active in university shared governance. World Languages and Cultures faculty are sponsors of student organizations such as the French, German, Scandinavian, and Spanish clubs; they advise students on study abroad and career planning and mentor students in graduate programs. The department sponsors two language honor societies.

Our faculty have received Fulbright grants, faculty research grants, faculty improvement grants, and teaching awards. Faculty publications include books, articles, online publications, translations, videos, and electronic media.

STUDENT EXPERIENCE
Faculty/Student Ratio:
The average is 1:17, which varies according to program and level.

Specialized Facilities:
The Global Learning Lab is a state-of-the-art language laboratory. Using specialized software, hardware and networked storage, instructors can create assignments that give students opportunities to work individually, in pairs or small groups, or as an entire class. The lab is also equipped with multiple projectors and a variety of media players, allowing for dynamic and effective classroom presentations and other activities.

Our main classrooms in Armstrong Hall have modern, configurable furniture layouts, as well as large Internet-connected touchscreen monitors, document cameras, and all-region Blu-Ray players. In some cases, rooms are also outfitted with tablet computers and other tools to further enhance students’ classroom experience.

Study Abroad:
All students are encouraged to travel and study in countries where their second language is spoken. The Department of World Languages and Cultures has programs in Costa Rica, Ecuador, France, Germany, Norway, Spain, and Sweden. Minnesota State Mankato collaborates with exchange programs... programs throughout the world. Study abroad enhances student proficiency in language and promotes cultural understanding and sensitivity to cultural difference.

Scholarships:
The department awards scholarships to returning students based on academic merit and need. Some of those scholarships are aimed toward study abroad opportunities.

Other Opportunities:
The Department collaborates with local schools in providing clinical experiences and internships for pre-service teachers.

The Department has active language clubs (French, German, Scandinavian, Spanish) and students have the opportunity to get engaged in community and university activities that allow them to use their language and understanding of culture. Some activities include film nights, collaboration with the Hispanic-Latino Conference, the International Festival, conference planning and participation, volunteer service programs in the community and fundraising for club activities.
