Study Abroad Prohibited

Yes

No

Minnesota State System-wide International Travel Ban?

Yes

No

Level 1 or 2

Level 3 or 4

If level 4 study abroad prohibited

If level 3 seek approval from President who will seek approval from Chancellor

Are travelers originating from the United States of America currently allowed entry?

Yes

No

Study Abroad Prohibited

Does the country currently have quarantine requirements?

Yes

No

Can you offer a program of quality with a delay in the activities on the ground due to the quarantine requirements?

Yes

No

Study Abroad Prohibited

Does your institution have the funds available to:
- cover the costs associated with requiring students to quarantine separately,
- evacuate/repatriate students,
- pay on-site staff and service providers even if the program is canceled,
- offer partial refund to students if programs are canceled or switch to virtual programming?

Yes

No

Study Abroad Prohibited

Has your institution considered the risk of COVID-19 to a program’s own students, personnel?

Yes

No

Address funding shortage and develop appropriate considerations and return to previous question

Highly likely

Moderately likely

Highly unlikely

Study Abroad Prohibited

What is the likelihood of students being able to practice appropriate preventative measures (social distancing, mask wearing, avoiding large groups)?

Study Abroad Allowed

Develop policies and procedures:
- Quarantine or self-isolation
- Testing requirements
- Physical distance requirements
- Mask requirements
- Refund policies
- Fee time expectations and consequences
- Repatriation procedures
- Moving a program online
- Academic continuity
- After Travel requirements

If level 3 seek approval from President who will seek approval from Chancellor

Make necessary modifications to contracts and return to previous question

Has the contract been reviewed for the following:
- equitable assumptions of liability,
- fair and equitable refund policies,
- clear distribution of responsibilities between partners regarding communicating public health messages, educating students,
- responsibility for additional needs and cost for facilities and equipment in the context of COVID-19,
- clear decision-making protocols for crisis response,
- clear terms for terminating a contract,
- clearly articulated consequences each party will face for breach of contract,
- and identification of signatories and decision-makers with institutional authority to sign and whether these may differ in the context of a crisis.

Institution-led Program

Yes

3rd Party Provider Program

No

Make reasonable adjustments where necessary while keeping to the goals of the educational experience

Per the State Department what is country’s current travel advisory level? https://travelmaps.state.gov/TSGMap/

Level 3 or 4

If level 3 seek approval from President who will seek approval from Chancellor

Per the State Department what is country’s current travel advisory level? https://travelmaps.state.gov/TSGMap/

Highly likely

Moderately likely

Study Abroad Prohibited

Yes

No

What is the likelihood of students being able to practice appropriate preventative measures (social distancing, mask wearing, avoiding large groups)?

Yes

No

Can you offer a program of quality with a delay in the activities on the ground due to the quarantine requirements?

Highly likely

Moderately likely

Highly unlikely

Study Abroad Prohibited

Does your institution have the funds available to:
- cover the costs associated with requiring students to quarantine separately,
- evacuate/repatriate students,
- pay on-site staff and service providers even if the program is canceled,
- offer partial refund to students if programs are canceled or switch to virtual programming?

Highly likely

Moderately likely

Highly unlikely

Study Abroad Prohibited

Does your institution have strong policies and procedures that demonstrate your institution puts the health & safety of students first?

Highly likely

Moderately likely

Highly unlikely

Study Abroad Prohibited

Study Abroad Prohibited
Minnesota State System-wide Domestic Travel Ban?

- Yes: Study Away Prohibited
- No: Is the program traveling to one of the four contiguous states (Wisconsin, Iowa, South Dakota, and/or North Dakota)?
  - Yes: Study Away Prohibited
  - No: Are there travel restrictions due to outbreaks in this state where the program will occur?
    - Yes: Study Away Prohibited
    - No: Does the state currently have quarantine requirements?
      - Yes: Study Away Prohibited
      - No: Can you offer a program of quality with a delay in the activities on the ground due to the quarantine requirement?
        - Yes: Study Away Prohibited
        - No: Do you have strong policies and procedures that demonstrate your institution puts the health & safety of students first?
          - No: Make necessary modifications to contracts and return to previous question
          - Yes: Highly likely
            - Highly likely: Make reasonable adjustments where necessary while keeping to the goals of the educational experience
            - Moderately likely: Highly unlikely
            - Highly unlikely: Study Away Prohibited

Does your institution have the funds available to:
- cover the costs associated with requiring students to quarantine separately,
- evict or separate students,
- pay on-site staff and service providers even if the program is canceled,
- offer partial refunds to students if programs are cancelled or switch to virtual programming?

Has your institution considered the risk of COVID-19 to its own students personnel?
- Yes: Has your institution considered the impact canceling a program can have on students ability to make progress to degree and developed appropriate timelines to support students in continuing their progress without adverse effect?
- No: Address funding shortage and develop appropriate considerations and return to previous question

Institution led Program

- Yes: Does your institution have the funds available to:
  - cover the costs associated with requiring students to quarantine separately,
  - evict or separate students,
  - pay on-site staff and service providers even if the program is canceled,
  - offer partial refunds to students if programs are cancelled or switch to virtual programming?
- No: Has your institution considered the risk of COVID-19 to a program’s own students personnel?
- Yes: Has your institution considered the impact canceling a program can have on students ability to make progress to degree and developed appropriate timelines to support students in continuing their progress without adverse effect?

3rd Party Provider Program

- Yes: Highly likely
  - Highly likely: Make reasonable adjustments where necessary while keeping to the goals of the educational experience
  - Moderately likely: Highly unlikely
  - Highly unlikely: Study Away Prohibited
- No: Study Away Prohibited

Develop policies and procedures and return to previous question:
- Quarantine or self-isolation
- Testing requirements
- Physical distance requirements
- Mask requirements
- Refund policies
- Free time expectations and consequences
- Repeated procedures
- Moving a program online
- Academic continuity
- After Travel Requirements

Has the contract been reviewed for the following:
- equitable assumptions of liability,
- fair and equitable refund policies,
- clear distribution of responsibilities between partners regarding communicating public health messages, educating students,
- responsibility for additional needs and cost for facilities and equipment in the context of COVID-19,
- clear decision-making protocols for crisis response,
- clear terms for terminating a contract,
- clearly articulated consequences each party will face for breach of contract,
- and identification of signatories and decision-makers with institutional authority to sign and whether these may differ in the context of a crisis.