      i) The Environmental Sustainability Organization (ESO) strives to improve the environmental well-being of Minnesota State University, Mankato’s campus and the greater Mankato Area community. It does so by organizing on and off campus volunteer opportunities for its members and partners to protect our natural environment and to promote sustainable living.
